BBC Bitesize Daily Lessons

Parents, have you heard about BBC Bitesize Daily Lessons?

Each day, BBC Bitesize will be publishing daily lessons and activities for subjects across the curriculum and each year group. These consist of around 20-minute shows each designed to target a specific age group. They will be available on any TV via the Red Button and online, on any device, and on BBC iPlayer.

Each lesson will normally consist of a 'Learn' stage, where your child is introduced to the learning focus and essentially taught it. This then moves onto the 'Practice' stage, where children are able to apply what they learnt into interactive and engaging activities.
