

Who can I talk through my worries with?

Sometimes, we need a trusted friend or adult that we can talk through our worries with. Remember, they might feel the same! Can you think of 5 people that would listen to you talk about your worries?

Write them in each finger in the hand below, or even better draw around your hand and write them on!

